RITTER CENTER

WHO WE ARE

Ritter Center is a Federally Qualified Health Center (FQHC) in Marin County that specializes in preventing and resolving homelessness by providing high-quality medical and mental health care, housing support, and food to people living in poverty for free or at low cost.

Their highly trained team combines national clinical best practices with a whole person care approach to solve each person's needs. Their new Medical Outreach Team brings trusted care and treatment to people unable to travel via a new street medicine van. With over 40 years of experience, they have built industry-leading knowledge and collaborative partnerships with county agencies, health partners, and like-minded organizations to create complete support solutions that sustainably improve people's lives. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, they rely on donors and volunteers to help them fulfill their mission.
