Born in Berkeley. Made in Oakland.

You deserve to live a healthy, happy, and adventurous life without sacrificing your taste buds. Rebout has improved our lives and those around us. Experience bottled-up wellness for yourself!

LOCALLY SOURCED. LOCALLY MADE. LOCALLY ENJOYED!

Herbal Elixirs by Rebout was created by Chef OLive and Lisa, the owners of Kitchen on Fire, Cooking school Berkeley and Sid Balachandran, a former student with food operations scale up experience. Ten years ago, they started formulating beverages with herbs and spices to provide additional nutrition support to their students. To their delight, they felt great and came back for more! This served as an eureka moment.

Herbal Elixirs combine centuries-old European recipes and powerful Eastern herbal elements, all designed to elevate your day and your taste buds! Herbal Elixirs do not have the vinegary taste like kombuchas and comes in 3 non-caffeinated flavors as well. Rebout uses only the good stuff! Crafted with a synergistic combination of herbs, spices, and superfoods.
