MORTON & BASSETT SPICES®

Discover the flavorful world of Morton & Bassett Spices!

Since Morton Gothelf started Morton & Bassett Spices in 1986, they've been greener than their bay leaves with over 100 organic, non-GMO, gluten free, and kosher spices.

Pioneers in transparency, Morton & Bassett introduced clear packaging for spices in 1986, ensuring that their customers can admire the premium quality ingredients within.

Morton & Bassett's unwavering mission is to exceed customer expectations through unparalleled quality. Explore their extensive selection of spices, herbs, and extracts sourced from around the globe at United Markets!

A family-owned company in Sonoma County, they strive to be stewards of our planet, whether it's with their Platinum LEED certified factory with 100% solar power, their use of Roots for Peace pepper, their commitment to non-GMO, or their avid support for community organizations.
