LYPID KITCHEN

Lypid Kitchen, where comfort food gets a plant-based glow-up! They are a small but mighty team of food lovers dedicated to reimagining your favorite dishes. Their mission? To create guilt-free, crave-worthy versions of the comfort foods we all know and love, without compromise.

Lypid Kitchen launched with a single goal: to make plant-based eating delicious, satisfying, and accessible. Their debut product, the 100% plant-based BBQ Pork Piggy Bao, was inspired by a team member's daughter's favorite treat.

It's rich, juicy, and packed with everything you love about traditional dim sum, but made better for you and the planet.

At Lypid Kitchen, every bite is crafted with care. Their dim sum are handmade, preservative-free, and full of comforting, authentic flavor. Whether you're a dim sum devotee or just curious to try something new, they promise plant-based dining like you've never experienced before.

Ready to taste it for yourself? Swing by United Markets and grab a bao, or two! Dim sum, so yum! Welcome to the future of comfort food.
